Family Sponsorship Options: Many work visas allow your spouse and children to accompany you or join later through dependent visas.

Pathway to PR & Citizenship: Can serve as a stepping stone toward permanent residency or citizenship, based on the country's immigration policies.

Education Benefits for Dependents: Children may be eligible for free or subsidized education in public schools, depending on the host country.

Improved Quality of Life: Access to better healthcare, social security, and lifestyle benefits while living and working abroad.
